

God is Able

Have you ever been broken, and thought your pieces were gone

The weight of the world, sits upon you, although you try to be strong

Sometimes you're weak, at times you're worn,

Sometimes you're tired and your torn--You dont know which way to turn.

No--And peace is all you yearn

Can I tell you about someone that I call. Hes the Father, the Spirit and the Son

You may be weak, maybe worn , maybe tired, maybe torn

But I know someone who is able

Oh yes he is He able. We lift our hands and say

So whatever you going through today

Know that God is gonna make a way

Sometimes there're friends that turn their back on you

Know that God is gonna bring you through

So look to the hills from which cometh your help

He's always there to bring you through

Don't give up, hang on in there

Can I tell you about someone that I call--Hes the Father, the Spirit and the Son hessss

You may be weak, maybe worn , maybe tired, maybe torn

But I know someone who is able

So I wanna tell you hold on, Be strong

God is able Yes he is, yes he is

Be steadfast, Unmovable, God is able

Can you lift your hands and reach up and say it tonight

Hold on, Be strong, God is able

Yes he's able. So be steadfast, Unmovable, God is able .Yes he is, yes he is

Say God is able, God is able, God is able. Yes he is , Yes he is , Yes he is

Say God is able

Through exceeding and abundant

Say God is able. Yes he is, Yes he is. Say God is able

Can you say God is able. Hes able, able

God is able .Yes he is, yes he is

God is able

Lift your hands and your voice and sang God is able. God is able
